FACS
Second Annual

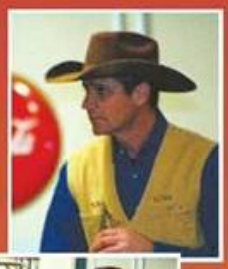
Stockmanship Series

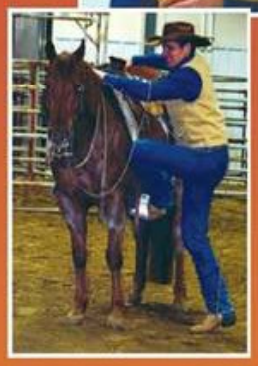
March 26/27, 2010

Prairieland Park Ag Centre, Saskatoon

www.facs.sk.ca

Back by popular demand
Renowned Cattleman and AQHA Clinician
Mr. Curt Pate



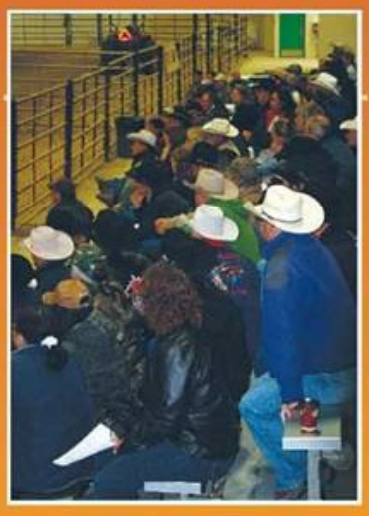


In collaboration with AQHA and the Colorado-based National Cattlemen's Beef Association, Curt facilitates effective stockmanship clinics with audiences across the USA. His live demonstrations of low stress handling with cattle and low stress colt starting have been overwhelmingly successful in many countries.

His first collaborative session with FACS in May 2009 was highly praised with participants requesting his return to Saskatchewan.

Cattle Handling: Friday March 26, 2010
10 am to 3 pm — $50 + GST before March 19 ($75 + GST after March 19)

Colt Starting: Saturday March 27, 2010
10 am to 3 pm — $50 + GST before March 19 ($75 + GST after March 19)



Calling all Farriers

Delta Mustad Hoof Care Centre, in collaboration with FACS, offer a one-day clinic with veteran farrier Lee Green, former World Champion Farrier and World Champion Mule Speed Shoer. Based in Yucaipa, California Lee is recognized world wide as a pioneer in establishing horseshoeing clinics, holding the first one in 1974.

Farrier Clinic: Saturday March 27, 2010
10 am to 4 pm — $50 + GST before March 19 ($75 + GST after March 19)

F·A·C·S
Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan Inc.

Contact: Farm Animal Council of Saskatchewan – Adele Buettner, Executive Director – (306) 249-3227 www.facs.sk.ca

Stockmanship Series 306.249.3227