About the Clinician:

Hendrik Gabel of Nesselroden Germany – Manages a training stable of Warmblood horses in preparation for competition, mare inspections and auctions. Reit Master Graduate of the Hanoverian Riding and Driving School in Verden, Germany (where German riders seek their own training and credentials) with elite honors, coaching in both Germany and Canada, Hendrik also participates on the CWHBA National Stallion Test and is on the 2010 CWHBA Showcase judging panel. This affords the clinic to run at “cost” offering you a unique opportunity to bring your horse in for training at a very reasonable rate! Unique opportunity to train with this accomplished German Trainer, limited space in private and semi-private lessons. Contact Val Sanford 306-242-5099 or valsanford@hotmail.com to arrange a spot!
