CORPORATE MEMBER CLUBS

LIABILITY INSURANCE PROGRAM

Explanation of Sports Liability Coverage

Aon Reed Stenhouse Inc.

Who is Insured?

The $ 5 million liability coverage provided will pay legal, adjusting and settlement costs arising from claims brought against the following

- The Provincial Sport Organization (SHF) named in the Certificate of Insurance.
- Executives, employees, directors, officers, coaches, managers, officials and volunteers of the SHF (includes the Clubs) while acting for or on behalf of the organization (operating 'sanctioned' events).
- Municipalities, government departments, school boards, sponsors and owners of facilities used by the SHF and their members but only for vicarious liability arising out of the operations.
- Any member of the SHF while participating in or training for a sanctioned sporting or training event.

What Does the Policy Cover?

The liability policy will pay legal fees, adjusting expenses and settlement costs for claims brought against an Insured which are claiming for compensatory damages arising from an Insured's action or alleged negligence causing bodily injury, property damage or personal injury.

A Partial Summary Only Follows

Claims for negligence covered from insurance would arise from:

- ✓ Premises occupied by you and operations conducted by the organization.
- ✓ injury to participants arising out of sports and social activities sanctioned by the SHF.
- ✓ Products sold or distributed.
- ✓ Actions of independent contractors you may employ but only with respect to your vicarious liability.
- ✓ Liability assumed under a contract you have entered into.
- ✓ Accusation of false arrest, wrongful detention or imprisonment, libel, slander, defamation or malicious prosecution.
- ✓ Liability for injury to an employee who is normally covered by Worker's Compensation but where WCB denies coverage.
- ✓ Liability arising out of the use and operation of vehicles not owned by an insured.
- ✓ Claims for incidental malpractice where a person may become further injured following application of first aid treatment.
- ✓ Damage to facilities rented or leased by you.

What is a Sanctioned Event?

A "Sanctioned Event " includes all games, competitions or demonstration run by the SHF or by a member club authorized by the SHF, including related training at the event site and at club premises. Sanctioning is by way of a specific application for sanction and authorized by the SHF, following the guidelines of the SHF.

Directors & Officers Liability Extension

The policy contains a combined Directors & Officers and Error and Omission for of coverage. The policy will pay legal, adjusting and settlement costs for claims for compensatory damage where a third party alleges a wrongful act against the SHF or any of the Insureds while acting on behalf of the organization.

A "wrongful act: is an actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect or breach of duty.

This is a partial summary only. The actual terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations are defines in the Master Policy.
